RURAL TAVERNS TO PAY $150 FEE, BOARD DECIDES

Silence of Closing Hours
Brings Protests from Dealers

PLAN TO MAKE NEW DEMANDS

Rural taverns will be charged a yearly license fee of $150, the Lake county board of supervisors voted late Tuesday after a stormy session in which fees ranging from $75 to $350 were suggested. The board, however, did nothing regarding the hour of closing. Presumably the license ruling goes into effect May 1.

The board's failure to act in the matter of regulating hours for country taverns has brought a storm of protest from city and village dealers and distributors who consider the fee too low and unfair to cities and villages which have placed much higher fees on taverns and also restricted them in operating by fixing closing hours varying from midnight to one o'clock.

The complaints plan to go before the April meeting of the board with demands that closing hours be set for rural taverns so that their competition will not be unfair, and they will demand further that steps be taken to stamp out bootlegging, which is said to be flourishing in the county in spite of the efforts of State's Attorney Charles E. Mason to stop the illicit traffic.

The state's attorney's office last week staged a much-publicized search for evidence that looked like the real thing, after a report that a half dozen Waukegan bootleggers were doing a thriving business had been printed in the Waukegan Times, a weekly published by Lloyd McNeely and Wayne Stapey.

Never mind, boys—you ain't seen nothin' yet! Wait until you behold the county wide man hunt for slot machine operators this coming summer.

CLYDE MCKERLIE OPENS MILK STORE

S. J. McInnes Succeeds Him
As Manager of Antioch
Dairy Company

Clyde Mckerlie, former manager of the Antioch Dairy Company, announces the opening of a new cash and carry milk store within the village to be known as the Antioch Milk Products Co. The new store, located at 831 N. Main street, will be open and ready for business to-morrow morning, and will offer milk, cream, and eggs for sale. Mckerlie expects to enlarge his stock soon to include butter, cheese, and other dairy products.

Mckerlie's resignation as manager of the Antioch Dairy Company, submitted a month ago, became effective Monday, when S. J. McInnes of Peoria took charge. McInnes served as assistant manager from the time the company was organized four months ago. Previous to that he was associated with the testing commission.

He plans to make his home in Antioch, and will be joined by his wife and small son within a short time.

REPUBLICANS TO SPEAK BEFORE THE GRASS LAKE CLUB

Republican candidates for county and township office have been invited to appear at the next regular meeting of the Grass Lake Club tomorrow night at the Grass Lake School to present their qualifications.

Present at the last meeting to which Democratic candidates were invited were Herbert Yager, up for sheriff; Jimmy Lennon, for sheriff; and Elmer Sorenson for precinct committeeman.

George Maleek, secretary of the Club, said that he expected Rep. Richard J. Lyons from Mundelein to be at the meeting tomorrow night.

Mayor Takes Charge Of Filling Station

Horton Is Made Manager of Phillips Station in Waukegan

Louis A. Horton, lessee and operator of Bartlett's service station at the corner of Main and Quality streets in Antioch for the past two years, left Monday to become manager of the Phillips station at Grand and Lewis avenues, Waukegan.

Horton's lease here did not expire until May 1, but Mayor George Bartlett, owner of the station, agreed to cut the lease short thus permitting Horton to accept the attractive proposition offered at the county seat.

Mayor Bartlett built the station several years ago. He plans to complete the building next door which will be used for washing and greasing cars.

SHOWDOWN ON SCHOOL RELIEF IS DUE AT SPRINGFIELD THIS WEEK

Governor Sees Situation as Opportunity to Exact
More Tax Money

A showdown on school relief will come in the legislature this week to determine whether the schools are to be saved or whether Gov. Horner is crafty enough to involve the teachers in a fight with their local authorities over diversion of gas taxes and thus slip out from the bad position in which he now finds himself.

Gov. Horner is also preparing to use the school situation to exact more taxes, Rep. John Devine, Democrat of Dixon, suggesting that the gasoline tax of 3 cents be increased. Others want to extend the sales tax base so that it will include incomes of all persons selling service such as pharmacists, barbers, beauty parlors and others. More than 400 occupations have been listed by Democratic leaders as possible tax victims.

Rep. Pierces L. Shannon, Democrat of Chicago, introduced a bill to take all race track taxes away from the state agricultural fund and give them to the schools.

The governor was forced to take a drubbing last week. He had told teachers delegations that if they wanted relief they must have a program acceptable to him, and said he would not permit diversion of any present income. Instead, Republicans in the house put through a bill giving all liquor revenue, estimated at $4,000,000 to $10,000,000 a year, to the school distributive fund.

Seven Republican senators put in a bill giving all sales tax receipts in excess of $2,500,000 a month to the school fund. This, it was estimated, would give the teachers an additional $6,000,000 to $15,000,000 a year, taking the schools out of their financial trouble and making it possible to cut school taxes from 10 to 30 percent in every district without levying new taxes.

The governor retaliated with typical Horner strategy. He had been introduced by Rep. Thomas P. Sennett of Rock Island, taking one-third of their cent of gasoline taxes away from counties, and two-thirds of their cent away from cities, and giving it to schools. This would leave the millions of new revenue from the liquor and sales taxes in the governor's hands for payrolls and political contracts.

It would get the teachers into a fight with their local county and city authorities who had already allotted their shares of the gasoline tax for road work and had grants of money from the PWA to help carry out the work.

The governor was quickly whipped on the gas tax diversion bill when a flood of protests came in from all over the state. The teachers were too smart to approve this plan and stood solidly behind the divisors of the sales and liquor taxes.

When the sales tax diversion bill came up on second reading in the senate, the Democrats were wobbly. Lt. Gov. Donovan reproved the Republicans for not asking the governors permission before introducing

GOVERNOR HORNER'S ECONOMY MYTH IS BEING EXPLODED

Adds Thirty-one Millions to State's Biennium Appropriations

The economy myth is being gradually exploded by the state administration, itself. Gov. Horner claimed to have cut appropriations for the biennium about $20,000,000 and the Illinois Legislative Voters League later aided in spreading this fiction. Appropriations exclusive of those for retiring state warrants, were $31,000,000 in excess of the previous biennium and have been greatly increased at the special sessions.

Director of Finance Ames admitted to the house last week that the welfare department where a cut of $10,000,000 was ordered by Horner, will need several millions in deficiency appropriations because of "increased cost of food, clothing, etc."

The truth is that Gov. Horner arbitrarily caused the appropriation for maintenance to be based on commodity prices of Jan 1, 1933, even though President Roosevelt was declaring he intended to double those prices. The prices had gone up about 25 per cent before the appropriation bills were passed in June, but the governor obstinately refused to revise the figures. To have done so would have wiped out his economies, which even then were fictitious.

FIRE CAUSES $1,500 DAMAGE TO FARM HOUSE

Property of Mrs. C. E. Herman at Bluff L. Threatened by Flames

FIREMEN RESPOND TO 4 CALLS DURING WEEK

Damage estimated at $1,500 was caused to the farm residence on the property of Mrs. C. E. Herman at Bluff Lake Sunday afternoon at 5:30 when fire originating around a defective chimney threatened to destroy the building. Antioch firemen called to the scene played two lines of water hose upon the fire for nearly an hour before it was extinguished.

Fire originating from the same source caused small damage to the building on January 31.

Extinguish Grass Fires

A grass fire that was making rapid headway north of Cross Lake and menacing the tenant houses on the Charles Martin farm was extinguished by firemen at four o'clock Saturday, and Sunday at three o'clock the department was called to Beach Grove where a grass fire threatened the Leslie Ico house.

A chimney fire at the home of Joseph Horton on Orchard street burned itself out without damage Tuesday at 6:30 o'clock.

Parkway Improvement Project Is Rejected

H. S. Work Is Delayed by Loss of Men and Cold
Weather

Rejection of the proposed amendment to the village CWA project providing for an improvement of Parkway and First streets was received yesterday by Mayor George B. Bartlett, who stated that the rejection was due to the fact that village officials declined to furnish gravel and trucks for the work.

The original grant, No. 2020, called for 22 men, two foremen, a time-keeper, and 19 laborers for six weeks' work toward the improvement of Orchard, Hillside, and Harden streets, the village furnishing gravel and truck hire. With the work still uncompleted upon the expiration of the allotted hours, a supplement was applied for and obtained, calling for the same number of men for six

The entire attendance reached seven thousand.

Consideration of a plan whereby the Pure Milk Association would purchase the milk from its members instead of serving merely as an agency for its sale was indefinitely postponed.

LOUIS B. KUFALK DIES IN HOSPITAL

Well-Known Farmer Taken
by Death After Brief Illness

Funeral services for Louis B. Kufalk, 68, well-known Antioch farmer who passed away at the Burlington Memorial hospital shortly before three o'clock Sunday morning, were held Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. Church, with Rev. L. V. Stilzer officiating. Interment is in Hillside Cemetery.

His death came quite suddenly after he had been a patient in the Burlington hospital for six days, and was caused by the forming of a blood clot. He had suffered at irregular intervals from varicose veins, and recently from a bad artery in the leg which would have necessitated an amputation had he lived.

He was born March 16, 1876, at Forestville, Wis., the son of Carl and Hannah Kutzak. His marriage to Miss Minnie Grabow of Burlington, Wis., was solemnized October 30, 1901. To this union were born four children, Roy, Elmer, Clarence, and Margaret.

Vacancies occurring this year are three trustees, village clerk and two members of library board. The Citizens Party candidates are E. O. Hawkins, H. J. Von and N. E. Sibley, all up for re-election as village trustees; R. L. Murrie for re-election as village clerk; and Louise Von and E. Morley, Webb, for library directors. ## I TOLD YOU SO

by Claudius E. Wade

It is strange and interesting, the things that circumstances can seemingly reveal. A little more than a week ago the country was electrified by the escape of John Dillinger from an Indiana jail. Before his escape his picture was taken in company with the sheriff and prosecuting attorney. This was quite all right as no one had any criticism to offer. Before this fiasco, Mrs. Holley was a fine sheriff; Mr. Blunk, a good deputy; Mr. Cahoon, a trusted helper; the guards were vicious, blood-thirsty men just waiting for a chance to kill.

Now the story is different. Everybody seems to have known that something was wrong. The Judge erred in not letting the state have custody of Mr. Dillinger; the prosecutor was his friend; the sheriff should have been asked to resign a long time ago because of sudden inefficiency; the deputy was a double-crosser; the turnkey could be bribed. Of the guards, the ones who were not asleep could not be found anywhere, so Mr. Dillinger, with a wash-board pistol completely subdued Lake County and walked away unmolested to freedom.

I am not a citizen of Indiana, neither am I subscribing to the innocence or guilt of those mentioned, but this situation is so humanly representative of how people act after anything has happened, that I could not refrain mentioning it.

Those I-told-you-so's and second-hand know-it-all's cause much trouble and complicate circumstances greatly. If there was just some way whereby we could get these people to tell what they know before a thing happens instead of after, think of the trouble that could be avoided.

If you can't say it before, don't cheapen yourself by saying it after.

FARM AND GARDEN TOPICS

GOOD SEED CORN OFFERS PROBLEM

Antioch Hi-Student Finds It Scarce in His Locality, So He Grows His Own

Glenn Griffin, Antioch, Ill., wrote the following project story, truth prize winner in the Drovers Journal Contest for students in Vocational Agriculture.

Good seed corn being very scarce in our community, I decided to grow the best corn I could obtain and thus not only improve our own corn crop but have a sufficient amount to sell to our neighbors.

In our section we need approximately 120 days of growing weather to mature corn and so it was up to me to find a strain which was acclimated. Upon advice received from my teacher of Vocational Agriculture, the seed was purchased from a grower who has an outstanding reputation as a corn breeder and who lives about 25 miles from our farm. The variety selected was Murdock. It produces a good sized ear and the stalks are large enough to make a fair amount of silage. I insisted upon getting two bushels of select ears which I butted and tipped by hand before shelling, after which I tested the seed for germination and found that it germinated 99%.

I selected a five acre plot which had grown corn the year before. This field had been top dressed two years previous when in clover, at which time an application of 1,000 pounds of rock phosphate was applied per acre. The field was plowed seven inches deep in the fall so as to insure a compact seed bed with plenty of moisture. In early spring it was double disked so as to germinate any weed seeds which were near the surface. Two weeks later the field was worked with a spring tooth harrow to loosen up the soil. Two weeks later it was again double disked and harrowed preparatory to planting.

Planted May 28

The corn was planted May 28, with a shockrow planter, dropping three kernels to a hill. Eighty pounds of 2-12-2 fertilizer per acre was applied when planting the corn. Four days later I blind cultivated and followed by cross harrowing. This made the field absolutely free from weeds at the time the corn came up. Four cultivations including one crosswise conserved moisture and kept the corn free of weeds.

On the fourth of July, the corn was waist high which is very uncommon in our locality for we are not in the corn belt.

I started to pick seed ears September 10, as about 90% of the ears were ripe at this time. After selecting about 50 bushels of choice ears they were strung with twine and hung under cover where the ears were nicely dried. The corn was then stored in a dry room for the winter. It will be offered for sale this spring at $2.00 per bushel. The edges of the field were used for silage. This made 10 loads of a ton each. The balance of the field was cut, shocked, and husked, making a yield of 305 bushels on the remaining four acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Loftus, of Wilmet, whose golden wedding anniversary occurred on Monday, were honored at a surprise family party by their children and grandchildren Sunday at their home.

A family dinner was served and open house was held throughout the afternoon and evening. Ninety friends and relatives of the couple called to offer felicitations upon the occasion. They received many bouquets of flowers and other appropriate remembrances.

The Loftuses were united in marriage at the farm home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds of Randall, by the Rev. Grover Clark of Belvidere, Ill. Attending them were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Imeson who are now residing in Hobron, Ill.

If you talk to a business man today about problems that are worrying him, nine chances out of ten he will bring up the subject of taxation. He knows that government must be supported and is anxious and willing to do his part. But he is beginning to question whether too many things are being done in the name of government, which are outside the functions of governing and in the realms of business.

The tax question is not yet as personal to the employee as it is to the employer because he has not yet seen his position in the picture as clearly as has the employer.

As a matter of fact, the employee has more at stake than the employer. Take the case of a factory employing ten or a thousand persons. The tax burdens of the employer, local and national, are reaching a point where his earnings, which he would like to spend for expansion, are in many cases absorbed by taxation. Taxes discourage the investor from making improvements that would give employment. Who is the greatest loser here?

If an employer is finally forced to cease operation, and his family suffer as one unit in community life, but ten employees or one thousand employees will suffer just as much as he does, by loss of their jobs. Therefore, employees really have a greater interest in conditions that create and maintain employment, than has the employer.

That is why employees have a greater interest today in taxation and legislative questions that encourage or discourage business, than ever before—because jobs become harder to get as opportunities are reduced for successful operation of industry.

"The curse of modern government is excessive expenditure and oppressive taxation."

"It complicates business, interferes with employment, prevents investment and industry and retards the return of prosperity."—Detroit Times.

The average portion which each man, woman and child owes for Federal and local government debts, totals about $300, or approximately $1,200 for every family of four. Repayment of principal and interest comes out of earnings of every citizen and industry.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth, his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings.
In his infancy he is an angel; in his boyhood he is a devil; in his manhood he is a scoundrel; in his manhood he is a drunkard; in his duties he is a fool; in his family he is a chump; if he rakes a cheque he is a thief; and then the law raises hell with him.
If he takes a glass of beer he is a drunkard; if a fool he is a misery to himself and everyone else;
if he is a drunkard, then he is a

Movie Influences

Discussed at
P.T.A. Meeting

The harmful influences of some types of moving pictures on children were discussed in detail at the meeting of the P.T.A. Monday evening by Mrs. Paul Ray and Mrs. Hall of the Libertyville P.T.A.

Mrs. Ray pointed out the emotional effect which pictures featuring gangsters, sex, crime or drinking have upon children. Most of her facts were taken from findings of the Motion Picture Research Council.

Mrs. Hall, in explaining what could be done about the situation, mentioned the National Film Estimate Service in which all films of any importance are judged concerning their fitness for children and adolescents, and monthly reports prepared and sent out to subscribers, before the release of the films. This service is quite conservative, and readers may be assured that its recommendations are of value. Other reliable estimates may be found in the Parents Magazine and in the Literary Digest.

Mrs. Hall explained that local producers or exhibitors could not be censured for featuring certain films, as they are compelled, under the box booking system, to take whatever films the booking company which they patronize send them.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 11.

The Golden Text was, "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God" (1 John 3:1).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him; and the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet" (Psalms 8:1, 3, 4, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth. Man and woman, as co-existent and eternal with God, forever reflect, in glorified quality, the infinite Father-Mother God" (p. 510).

The Future Farmers of America from Warren will play the Antioch F. F. A. basketball team here Saturday night.

Maine Cope Cup

In a surprise finish to the annual district basketball tournament held at Libertyville last week, Maine came through to a victory in the final by defeating Libertyville 32-20. Libertyville hopes for the trophy soared high after defeating Waukegan Thursday night in a see-saw battle, 43-23, but the Maine team nosed by to win.

Evanson put Warren out of the running Thursday night, 39-16, while Maine worsed Els, 31-0. Libertyville, duplicating the superior playing of the Waukegan game, defeated Deerfield-Shields Friday night 23-18, while Maine downed Evanson in a thriller, 34-33.

Evanson took the Deerfield team into camp Saturday night, 52-10, thus claiming third place.

Waukegan's strong team, undefeated in the district tournament for the past six years, takes a back seat this year for several other teams.

Soloists And Groups
To Perform At H. S.
Spring Concert Fri.

The spring concert and dance to be presented by the musical organizations of the Antioch high school tomorrow evening will represent the results of weeks of preparation, and will offer patrons an opportunity of observing progress made since last fall when a similar entertainment was presented.

In giving a summary of the type of program to be expected Hans von Holwede, director of the musical groups, particularly stressed the a capella numbers being presented by the Girls Glee Club and chorus. Effective a capella work is seldom achieved by high school groups.

A number of spirited marches will be played by the band, and specialty numbers featuring the versatility of the individual members will be staged by members of the Jazz Band. Songs of roses will be sung by the selected glee club.

Following the concert, a dance will be held, music being provided by the Jazz Band.

SENIOR CLASS
CHOSES PLAY

The 1934 Senior Class play will be "Once in a Lifetime," a three-act romance by Charles Q. Burdette. Mrs. George Phillips, director, announced yesterday.

The cast of characters is being selected this week. The play is quite different from any other productions ever presented at the high school, Mrs. Phillips said, and calls for unusual costumes and stage settings appropriate to romantic mythical days.

Girl Scout News

Mrs. Phillips was unable to come to the meeting Monday because of illness and Mrs. Ves took charge of the meeting.

We didn't have any contests at the meeting but talked about the program which we gave Friday evening at the Auxiliary meeting.

Consideration And Tact With Children Produce Best Results

Child Is an Individual and Should Be Treated as Such

The older we become and the more we observe, learn, and study of the ways of human nature, the more we are filled with wonder at the mysterious complicity and delicate workings of the human body and mind. Psychology and mental hygiene are comparatively new branches of learning, although there were some of the ancients who possessed a surprising knowledge of these subjects.

This isn't a sermon. It's merely a preface to a plea for greater tolerance and understanding in the treatment of children. Heredity and environment. There's much to be said for both, but after a child has arrived his heredity can not be changed, whereas his environment and its effect upon his character may be largely under the control of sympathetic elders.

Adults have their individual oddities and peculiarities which are respected by their companions. Why should not children be given equal consideration when each incident is going to make a three-fold greater impression on his mind than on that of an adult?

Children are not too young to appreciate and respond to tact, or to recognize and respond conversely to roughhod methods of dealing with them.

Coaxing is not good for a child—it feeds his ego, and breeds superiority and arrogance. Diplomacy, however, is a virtue of another nature. A little adroit persuasion, and a companionable attitude has been known to "get around" even the unexplainable opposition of the most stubborn child.

Temperamental children are to be ignored rather than fussed over or punished in their obstinate or flighty moods. That is, the fact that they are acting temperamentally is to be ignored, not the children themselves. They will soon be forced to snap out of it if treated in an ordinary, calm manner.

The best behaved children are usually those who are trained from infancy to cheerful regular habits. If the parents or nurses are cheerful, companionable, and of sufficient imagination to keep the child interested, he is going to enjoy a mental freedom and relaxation from strain, even though he observe the rules of ordinary obedience, eating and cleansing habits, and consideration in act and speech.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS

Very often large bath towels wear out in the center while the ends are yet good. These ends may be made into eating bibs for the baby. The material is very absorbent and offers an excellent protection.

Have you ever thought of using the mable top from a discarded or unused old-fashioned "center table" in your kitchen? It may be put on one end of your work table and it is a wonderful substitute for a porcelain top—an ever-ready pastry board. Hot dishes do not harm it and it is easily kept clean.

Did You Ever Try These Recipes? Do, Please

While people long have appreciated the charms of hot biscuits and honey, very few have become acquainted with honey as an ingredient in cakes and "sich." There is a recipe for a

Delicious Honey Cake

Sift together 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon ginger,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon cinnamon and  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt. Cream  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter and 1 cup honey well. Add 1 beaten egg,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sour milk and the dry ingredients. Mix well and bake in square tin at 375 degrees F. When served warm and topped with whipped cream it is a delicious dessert.

Cookies, too, can be made with honey. Here's the way to do it:

Light Honey Cookies

Cream  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter and  $\frac{1}{3}$  cup sugar; add 1 egg unbeaten and beat well. Add 1 cup honey and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Sift together 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  cups flour,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon baking powder and  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt; and add to first mixture. Roll dough out thin; cut in strips or with cookie cutter.

Dot's Biscuits

If you want some perfectly delicious rolls for company dinner, try this recipe. To have them warm for a one o'clock dinner eat them about eight o'clock in the morning.

Dasolve 2 compressed yeast cakes in one cup of lukewarm water. Cream 1 cup shortening and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar and add 1 cup boiling water. Cool and add yeast. Add 2 well beaten eggs.

Mix 6 cups of flour and 1 teaspoon salt. Mix on floured board and let sit for 1 hour. Make into buns and let raise 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  hours. Bake in a hot oven 20 minutes.

This makes a lot of biscuits, but it won't be too many.

Scalloped Eggs and Macaroni
6 hard cooked eggs
2 cups cooked macaroni
2 cups thin white sauce
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup buttered bread crumbs
Salt and pepper to taste
Cheese, if desired

Slice hard cooked eggs. Fill in buttered baking dish with alternate layers of buttered bread crumbs, macaroni and sliced eggs. Pour on white sauce and sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Bake in moderate oven for 20 minutes or until crumbs are brown.

Sauer Kraut with Potato Dumplings

Boil 1 can sauerkraut and 2 pounds pork ribs until meat is tender.

Combine  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup mashed potatoes with  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt, 1 egg beaten and 8 tablespoons milk. Sift  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup bread flour, then measure. Resift with 2 teaspoons baking powder and add to potato mixture. Drop by spoonfuls on top of sauerkraut. Cover closely and steam 20 minutes.

To save time and labor in making jelly of any fruits, strain the cooked pulp through the colander before putting it into the jelly bag. Then pour the juice through the jelly bag to remove the small amount of pulp which passes through the colander. This saves the tedious waiting for the juice to drain, since both these operations are quickly performed.

The local fire department was called out three times last week. The first call was to extinguish a fire over the large kitchen range and it was extinguished before much damage was done. The second was a grass fire which threatened cottages in Pettie Lake Park on Thursday and on Friday, a chimney fire was extinguished at the Schultz cottage east of town after a hole was burned in the roof. On Sunday afternoon the department burned off the grassy field south of Burnett Avenue to prevent a fire which might be destructive.

Then it was proposed that a committee of ten go and get their orders from the governor. The committee was loaded with Democrats and some others who vote mostly Democratic. The teachers' adherents had been temporarily led up a blind alley and temporarily delivered to Horner.

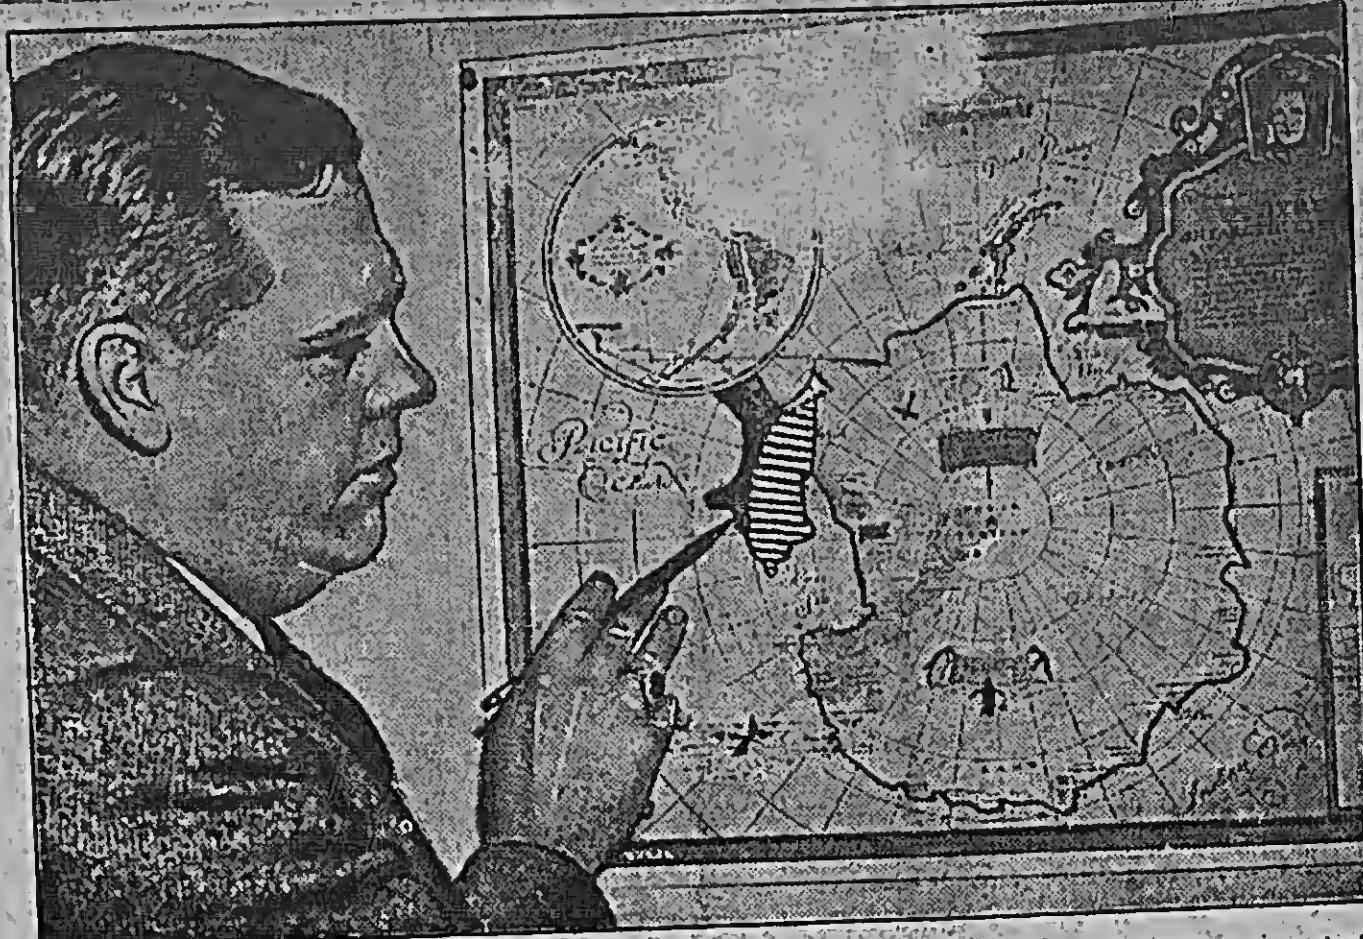

The house is supposed to have ten members sit with the ten senators and others Tuesday to devise a plan which may, or may not, help the teachers, but which will have as its primary objective the loyaling of more taxes. However, the house Republicans, fighting to help the teachers and at the same time save the taxpayers from further burdens, will have to be considered. There are also Republican senators who will continue to put public policy and party allegiance above patronage. Upon these the public will have to depend.

Brewery Built Before Civil War Days Is Now in Production

Rehabilitation of the McHenry brewery which was founded in civil war days, has been accomplished and the plant which has been thoroughly modernized has been in production since January 1, according to Manager Harry J. Schnitzman. The product—McHenry Beer—will go on sale next Thursday. The makers are the McHenry Brewing Company.

The McHenry plant is the only one in northern Illinois that is now brewing beer, the manager stated. Finest materials and most approved brewing methods are said to have

ADMIRAL BYRD ESTABLISHES NEW COAST LINE IN ANTARCTIC: Based on his observations during recent flights in the Antarctic, Admiral Richard E. Byrd reports that about 200,000 square miles of previously unknown area now can be eliminated from Antarctic maps and can be designated simply "Pacific Ocean". Captain Ashley C. McKinley, New York, Byrd's aerial photographer on the first expedition, is shown pointing to areas (in black) formerly believed to be land and now definitely established as water. The shaded area, to the right, is believed by Admiral Byrd also to be all ocean. Admittedly "unexplored" for the South Pole regions, Captain McKinley regularly talks to his old friends with the Byrd expedition during the broadcasts to and from the exploring party which are heard every Saturday night at 10 o'clock, a.m., over the Columbia network.

Many requests have been received by the brewery for the first barrel of McHenry beer.

Keulman Attends G. E. Conference

R. C. Keulman left this morning to attend a three-day conference in Chicago regarding the latest commercial refrigeration equipment manufactured by the General Electric company.

Under the NRA many millions of dollars will be spent during 1934 by merchants in the modernization of their stores. Before leaving Keulman stated that it is expected that 1934 will be a record year for electric refrigeration, judging from 1933, during which over a million refrigerators were sold in the United States.

Brother of Barney Trieger Passes Away

Robert Trieger, Formerly of Grass Lake, Noted for Police Service

Robert E. Trieger, brother of Barney Trieger, Grass Lake, passed away at his home in Norwood Park, Ill., yesterday at the age of sixty-eight. Funeral services will be conducted by the Masonic Lodge at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, followed by last rites at the grade in the Hillside Cemetery, Antioch, about three o'clock.

He was born in Germany in November, 1865, and came to America when about 16 years old. He lived in Grass Lake vicinity for nearly ten years before going to Chicago to join the police force in 1891.

He was united in marriage in Miss Dora Barnard of Grass Lake in November, 1886. To this union four children were born, three of whom passed away in infancy. One daughter, Ella, died a few years ago at the age of 28.

Trieger was well-known for his long service in the Chicago police department. He resigned in 1929 after 38 years on the force. He joined the force in 1891, and when the little town of Norwood Park was incorporated into the city limits of Chicago in 1893 Trieger was given the beat and kept it until he resigned.

He is survived by his widow, one brother, Barney, of Antioch; two nephews, Herbert Trieger, Chicago; and Arthur Trieger, Antioch; and a niece, Mrs. Dan Nugent, Norwood Park.

Antioch Takes Basketball Series From Lake Villa

The Antioch Town Team again fought their way to victory over the Lake Villa Bone-crushers, Monday night in the Antioch gym.

This was the third and final game of a grudge series between the two teams. Lake Villa won the first game of the series and the Antioch boys won the last two games.

Lake Villa took the lead at the game, and held it throughout the first half, although there was very little scoring done on either side in the first half as it was mostly a defensive game. Lake Villa had an 8 to 6 lead at half-time.

In the second half both teams found the hoop, and the game turned into a fast scoring duel. The Antioch lads went into the lead early in the third quarter, and never relinquished it thereafter. The final score 31 to 26.

Armsstrong and Steffenburg were the Lake Villa stars, while John Murphy and Ray Riley were high point men for Antioch although all the boys played exceptionally fine ball.

age must furnish all the gravel and truck hire. This is the village authority declined to do. The gravel cost would amount to about $200 and truck hire about $150, according to Mayor Bartlett, totaling $350.

Bartlett expressed himself as still hopeful that with the cooperation of the village, the project amendment might yet be approved after April 1.

H. S. Work Continues

What will happen to the lagoon project at the high school after the first of April is a matter of conjecture, according to Timekeeper S. M. Walane, who said that four men had been dropped last week, and more were expected to go this week. Work has been further delayed by the freezing weather, which renders moving of dirt and shrubs very difficult.

It is thought that under the President's reorganized CWA relief, the project may be carried through to completion, new workmen being secured from relief rolls.
